APPENDIX II.

[Vide answer to starred question No. 569 asked by Sri A. Vedarathnam at the meeting of the Legislative Assembly held on 9th September 1960, page 512 supra.]

Representations have been received by Government that the method adopted for the valuation of lands offered as security for loans issued by Land Mortgage Banks on the basis of pre-war values was too stringent and that sanction and disbursement of these loans took a lot of time especially due to delay in the issue of encumbrance certificates and registration of mortgage deeds by Sub-Registration Officers. So far as the valuation of lands offered as security is concerned, Government have since ordered that such lands should be valued with reference to the average market value
